

ARIZONA SUPERIOR COURT, PIMA COUNTY

HON. RICHARD E. GORDON

CASE NO. C20131650

COURT REPORTER: Mary Bernal
Courtroom - 586

DATE: July 15, 2016

TIFFANY BREDFELDT, and
PHILLIP BREDFELDT
Plaintiffs

Christopher L. Scileppi, Esq. counsel for Plaintiffs

VS.

TODD GREENE
Defendant

Kent F. Davis, Esq. counsel for Defendant

TODD A. GREENE
Counter Plaintiff

Kent F. Davis, Esq. counsel for Counter Plaintiff

TIFFANY G BREDFELDT, and
PHILIP A BREDFELDT
Counter Defendants

Christopher L. Scileppi, Esq. counsel for Counter Defendants

MINUTE ENTRY

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISSOLVE//PLAINTIFFS' PETITION FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE RE: CONTEMPT

All parties are present.

Plaintiff's Exhibits are identified as follows:

1---Printout of article on "Talking Back to Restraining Orders – The Evolution of a Lie: How Covering Up an Impulsive Deception Can Turn into a Decade of Legal Abuse."

2---Printout of article on "Talking Back to Restraining Orders – Lies, Hypocrisy, and Procedural Abuse, Or, My False Accuser's Mother-in-Law Hosts Bible Study Classes."

3---Printout of article on "Talking Back to Restraining Orders – Courtroom Fraud and Smear Campaigns: The Full Machiavelli."

4---Printout of article on "Talking Back to Restraining Orders – Accomplices in Fraud: When False Accusation Is a Team Sport."

Heather Smith
Deputy Clerk

MINUTE ENTRY

Page 2

Date: July 15, 2016

Case No.: C20131650

5---Printout of article on “Talking Back to Restraining Orders – A Cautionary Observation for Narcissists and Other Sociopaths Who Believe Their Own Press: The Effectiveness of Lies Has an Expiration Date (and So Do You).”

6---Printout of article on “Talking Back to Restraining Orders – Another Way False Testimony Is Concealed: The Unconstitutional “Prior Restraint”.”

7---Printout of article on “Talking Back to Restraining Orders – “She Wasn’t Allowed to Have FRIENDS”: Emails to Todd Greene about His False Accuser’s Childhood (Growing Up the Hargis Way).”

8---Printout of e-mail text

9---Printout of Google search results for Tiffany Bredfeldt

10---Victim’s Impact Statement, Tiffany Bredfeldt, PhD

11---Copy of TPD Incident/Investigation Report #1511010169 by Ofc. Schladweiler, 1/14/2016

12---Summary Timeline of Greene Harassment Issue

13---Copy of 2006 Injunction Against Harassment Documents

As to Defendant’s Motion to Dissolve:

Counsel argue to the Court.

Counsel are directed to submit simultaneous briefings regarding revenge blogs and Orders of Protection that restrict language, via email to chambers no later than 9:00 AM on July 29, 2016. The briefings are limited to five (5) pages and there shall not be any Responses or Replies.

The Court shall take the Motion to Dissolve UNDER ADVISEMENT as of July 29, 2015.

As to Plaintiff’s Order to Show Cause Re: Contempt:

FOR THE PLAINTIFF:

Plaintiff’s Exhibit 14, being a Printout article on “Talking Back to Restraining Orders – RestrainingOrderAbuse.com Is Back Online (for Now).”, is identified.

Mr. Davis moves to invoke the Rule, which motion is granted, and witnesses are excluded from the courtroom.

Philip A. Bredfeldt is sworn and examined.

Plaintiff’s Exhibits 1 through 7 are admitted by stipulation.

Brian Chase, Esq., is called out of order, sworn, examined, questioned by the Court, cross-examined on voir dire, cross examined, and excused.

The Court and counsel discuss the related criminal proceedings in the City Court of the City of Tucson.

Heather Smith
Deputy Clerk

MINUTE ENTRY

Page 3

Date: July 15, 2016

Case No.: C20131650

Philip A. Bredfeldt, previously sworn, resumes the bench, and is further examined.

Plaintiff's Exhibits 8 and 9 are admitted over objection.

The Court and counsel further discuss the criminal proceedings in the City Court of the City of Tucson.

Mr. Davis informs the Court that he will be filing a special action to stay these proceedings.

Mr. Davis makes an oral Motion to Stay the Proceedings.

11:45 AM The Court recesses until 1:30 PM, this date.

AFTERNOON SESSION:

FOR THE PLAINTIFF (Continued):

All parties present. Same counsel and court reporter present.

Plaintiff's Exhibit 15, being a Copy of Motion to Dismiss Complaint (Without Prejudice), is identified.

Plaintiff's Exhibit 16, being a Copy of Fwd: Proposal to Jeremy Cheezum from Todd Greene (in re Tiffany Bredfeldt frauds), is identified.

Mr. Scileppi informs the Court that the City of Tucson will be filing a Motion to Dismiss the criminal matter with respect to Mr. Green and provides the Court with a copy of the Motion to Dismiss Complaint (Without Prejudice), in open court.

Mr. Davis renews his Motion to Stay the Proceedings stating that this is a criminal contempt matter and the Defendant is entitled to a jury trial.

Counsel argue to the Court.

Mr. Scileppi provides the Court with a copy of the Bill of Particulars, in open court.

The Court takes a brief recess.

IT IS ORDERED the Defendant shall pay the $350.00 sanction imposed by the Hon. Carmine Cornelio in his Ruling dated July 19, 2013 within 45 days of today's date.

The Court admonishes the Defendant that failure to pay said sanction within 45 days of today's date will result in Civil contempt.

IT IS ORDERED that Defendant's Motion to Stay is GRANTED.

The Court notes that it shall resolve the Defendant's Motion to Dissolve prior to ruling whether it shall proceed with civil or criminal proceedings in this matter. If the Court decides that this is a criminal matter, then a Status Conference shall be set.

THE COURT AFFIRMS that the current Injunction in this matter remains in full force and effect.

IT IS ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Bill of Particular be filed in court.

Heather Smith
Deputy Clerk

MINUTE ENTRY

Page 4

Date: July 15, 2016

Case No.: C20131650

The Court notes that Plaintiffs' Bill of Particulars was disclosed to the Defendant on June 21, 2016.

The Court stands at recess.

FILED IN COURT: Motion to Dismiss Complaint (Without Prejudice); Plaintiffs' Bill of Particulars

cc: Hon. Richard E. Gordon
Christopher L. Scileppi, Esq.
Kent F. Davis, Esq.
Clerk of Court - Under Advisement Clerk (as of July 29, 2016)

Heather Smith
Deputy Clerk